USPA NEWS - Emmanuel Macron Justin Trudeau are one of the youngest leaders in the world; This is new and unprecedented, but it does not prevent their rule at the head of large countries like France and Canada aged 40 and 46 respectively, They expressed their political visions which "converge" as respectively the President and the Canadian PM Justin Trudeau, who were several times at the press conference at the ELysee today. It is clear that both the image they send of young rank leaders in politics show how far we are entering a new era of different and refreshing politeness by the young smart minds of these world leaders.

Emmanuel Macron Justin Trudeau are one of the youngest leaders in the world; This is new and unprecedented, but it does not prevent their rule at the head of large countries like France and Canada aged 40 and 46 respectively,

They expressed their political visions which "converge" as respectively the President and the Canadian PM Justin Trudeau, who were several times at the press conference at the ELysee today. It is clear that both the image they send of young rank leaders in politics show how far we are entering a new era of different and refreshing politeness by the young minds of these world leaders. In fact, they both said it together and simultaneously "We both sought to bring together" and "put the emphasis on growth for all" on the Canadian side and that "it's always a great pleasure to work with Emmanuel ". On the French side, President Macron recalled that "Our economic relations are booming with 10Ms a year of exchanges and 250 Canadian subsidiaries installed in France employ 28 000 people and increase of 6% since September and in particular SMEs in a This shows the vitality of our exchanges in our struggles, our relations have changed and deepened, and the romanization of a Franco-Canadian intergovernmental seminar.

It is then a question of making the speeches and the acts coincide, to give the citizens the desire to be reconciled with politics in general and men / women politicians.
