Sherri Hill has teamed up with some of Hollywood's youngest starlets to design memorable prom and formalwear collections. For her Spring 2016 collection, that tradition will continue. The unveiling of Sherri Hill's Prom 2016 line included designs curated by Laura Marano, the star of Disney Channel's.

The 'Laura Marano' collection by Sherri Hill is inspired by Laura's personal style and her prom expertise. Laura attended her junior and senior proms, a friend's senior prom, and a prom on the set of 'Austin & Ally'. She also starred in Disney Channel Original Movie 'Bad Hair Day', in which she plays a high school senior preparing for the prom. She even received a Prom-posal from a fan of the show.

The Spring 2016 dress line will include Sherri Hill's signature style aimed at capturing the fashionable lifestyle of today's contemporary young women. Together, Marano and Hill have created looks that are sure to meet the Sherri Hill mission statement of enhancing the female form with fashion-forward styling and wearability.

Marano also joins a high-profile list of A-list teen Sherri Hill spokes models such as fellow Disney stars Bella Thorne and Ryan Newman, as well as dancing with the stars runner up Sadie Robertson.

Sherri Hill and Laura Marano will also be a part of 'TLC's Say Yes to the Prom.' Sherri Hill will donate dresses and Laura Marano will host the one-hour show on March 30, 2016, in Miami.

Sherri Hill is an American entrepreneur and fashion designer who specializes in formal evening wear. In 2014, Google recognized Sherri Hill as one of the Top Ten Trending Fashion Designers in its 14th Annual 'Year in Search' results.

Currently, Marano stars as 'Ally' in the lead of the Disney Channel international hit television series Austin and Ally which has won Kids Choice Awards in Mexico, Brazil, Argentina and Columbia. Recently, Marano won Best Actress on TV at the Kids Choice Awards for her role on Austin & Ally and the show won for Best TV Comedy.
