$440 MILLION FACE LIFT TO PERTH

BARNETT & SCAFFIDI CUT RIBBON

Perth , Western Australia, 31.01.2016, 15:57 Time

USPA NEWS - Elizabeth Quays was officially opened this week by Premier Colin Barnett and Mayor of Perth Hon Lisa Scaffidi . Planning Minister John Day and Premier Colin Barnett turned the first sod of dirt for this amazing $440 Million project at Esplanade Reserve on 26 April 2012.

Elizabeth Quay is a major Western Australian development project that opened on 29 January 2016 and will continue to develop through till 2018. The project included construction of an artificial inlet which was previously reclaimed land now recovered river on what was previously the Esplanade Reserve. Modifications to the surrounding environs including Barrack Square and the Bells Towers. I spent the evening talking to residents of Perth who told me openly they were so skeptical for years about the project and cost to the taxpayers of Perth but walking the beautiful structure and gardens of the picturesque Elizabeth Quays was a mind changer.

I spoke earlier this week with Mayor Lisa Scaffidi who said she was very proud of all the projects designed to bring multiculturalism and tourism to our great City and Elizabeth Quays will bring so much focus to Perth.

After seeing thousands of tourists snapping away with cameras , Tweeting, Facebooking and Instagram hash tagging I would agree. Reading the #elizabethquays twitter feeds one can only conclude this project will become an 'Iconic' gathering place for many weddings, tourists and locals as well as those just wanting to enjoy the serenity of Elizabeth Quays.

Well done City of Perth your images are going viral as I write and Perth again is becoming synonymous as one of the most beautiful and livable Cities in the World.

To Hon Mayor Lisa Scaffidi a quote from Ernest Hemingway who once said , "Courage is grace under pressure."<sup>[2]</sup>...Namaste
